

Resource

National Voices

National Voices is a coalition of over 200 different health and social care charities in England. National Voices works together with its members to advocate for more inclusive and person centred health care, shaped by the people who use and need it the most.

Print

The main vision of National Voices is to ensure that people are the drivers to shaping health and care decisions. National Voices work together with a number of charities to work together on specific issues to make change. The mission is to advocate for more inclusive and person centred health care.

NRAS makes up one of the 200 charities who form the coalition.

If you have an experience you would like to share relating to person centred care relating to your RA or JIA. please email our campaigns team, campaigns@nras.org.uk with the message subject "NRAS"

News, 09 May

Royal Mail post delays and NHS letters

NRAS has signed and supported an open letter by National Voices in relation to the ongoing Royal Mail consultation. National Voices has raised serious concerns about patient safety should the proposed outs to postal delivery services go ahead. Ofcom released a report earlier this year which fail could be overhauled [...]

Web link

National Voices website

This article was downloaded from www.nras.org.uk. National Rheumatoid Arthritis Society (NRAS) is a registered charity in England and Wales (1134859) and Scotland (SC039721). A private company limited by guarantee. Registered in England and Wales (7127101).