

Resource

Disability Benefits Consortium (DBC)

The Disability Benefits Consortium (DBC) is a national coalition of over 100 different charities and other organisations committed to working towards a fair benefits system. As part of the DBC, we speak up for NRAS Members who rely on disability benefits.

Print

The DBC is committed to achieving a benefit system that is fair for all and ensuring that Government policy on benefits meets the needs of all disabled people.

If you have an experience you would like to share relating to disability benefits, or would like to support this campaign, please email our campaigns team, campaigns@nras.org.uk with the message 'I'm disabled and I'm not getting the support I need'.

News, 18 Nov

Join the DBC's call in demanding the Government to stop leaving disabled people behind

['Rishi, we urge you, please – do the right thing' – over 119,000 demand Chancellor stop denying financial lifeline to 2 million people on legacy benefits. 18/11/2020 Petition hand-in follows Ian Blackford MP telling Prime Minister to "fix the serious gaps in Covid-19 support for those excluded in the UK" Actor Alun Armstrong behind call \[...\]](#)

Find out more about this and the DBC's other work on the consortium's website below.

Disability Benefits Consortium \(DBC\)

Visit the Disability Benefits Consortium (DBC) website.

This article was downloaded from www.nras.org.uk. National Rheumatoid Arthritis Society (NRAS) is a registered charity in England and Wales (1134859) and Scotland (SC039721). A private company limited by guarantee. Registered in England and Wales (7127101).